

EUROPARK Prague

Shopping Destination at a Growing Retail Location

EUROPARK Prague is located at a steadily growing retail location in the southeast area of the Czech capital. In addition to its excellent transport links, the shopping center is characterized by its strong family-friendly orientation and is very well anchored in the region. The center was expanded in 2008. The variety of shops, restaurants, and service outlets makes the shopping center special. In addition, extraordinary events and specials make EUROPARK Prague a preferred shopping destination. In June 2023, a brand new 11,000-square-metre Globus hypermarket opened to become a powerful magnet for EUROPARK Prague. It's the most modern food store in Czechia, where, since the SPAR Austria Group is no longer represented, SES has switched to the hypermarket format.
